Our comprehensive sessions are fast-paced, fun and designed to capture your child's attention. Taught by highly qualified education professionals, On-Track's preparation courses are kept small to ensure individualized instruction. Students take practice tests that closely simulate real testing conditions. This enables us to establish a baseline for student performance, as well as provide a profile identifying strengths and weaknesses that allow emphasis on critical areas for individual student improvement.

Savings indicated are based on the above prepaid options versus regular hourly fees for HSPT test prep services.

Disclaimer: HSPT Preparation is designed to provide valuable instruction, practice and repetition of skills required on the exam. Research shows that students taking preparation courses may show a significant improvement. Homework and attendance are critical to testing success. Admission into any school or guarantee of any score is not possible nor implied. Missing sessions or assignments may result in a measurable reduction in test scores. Make-up classes are not offered; however, additional individual sessions may be arranged at the regular hourly fee.
